Senior Class Walk – Friday 11 April

The wet weather caused us to postpone this trip until next term. The new date is Friday 9 May (the end of the first week of Term Two).

Kawerau ANZAC Day - Dawn Parade & Ceremony

Gather at 5.45 am at the Ex-Navalmens club on Onslow Street on the 25th of April where the annual memorial service will commence. The parade will head to the Ron Hardie Recreation Centre where the formalities will begin. The ceremony will then move into the Rec Centre to finish off. The RSA warmly welcomes all to attend. During this week the school has had poppies on sale in preparation for Anzac Day.

Netball

Unfortunately yesterday's games were interrupted by rain just after they started. Thank you to all coaches and supporters who have helped us get started. Fingers crossed for fine weather next term. We still need two more coaches for the year 1 & 2 teams. Please see Mrs Hyland or let the office know if you can help.

School Website

A reminder that the School does have a web site with an events calendar, information about the school and a gallery with photos of recent events. This can be found at www.kawerausouth.school.nz

Young Sportsmen

Two of our middle school boys have recently enjoyed success in the sporting arena. Jimi attends gymnastics and has received awards for cartwheels and forward rolls. Late in the year he will compete at the National level. Jack takes part in jujitsu at the local MMA (Mixed Martial Arts) and recently competed in Auckland.
